FROM THE TRAINER

Knowing Technical Analysis can help you trade in all the markets that you can open in a chart.

Its a process just like being a doctor, an engineer or a designer & studying from Class 1 to Class 12th & then doing Graduation & then Post Graduation & then applying for your Ph.D.

The process seems quite simple but it can be pretty complicated if you do the same thing in the reverse direction or no specific direction at all. Like learning class 5th, then 1st, then 12th, then Post Graduation. Every new step will make some sense to you as you are keenly interested but at the end, it'll be one big heck of a complex yield

This happens to the most of us in our Trading Career. We always learn something like candlestick patterns, then meet a new trainer with a new price action theory, then watch some youtube videos on RSI & apply supertrend on a daily chart while doing Intraday. Amidst this chaos, we make money sometimes but mostly we don't.

But the final output remains the same for all of us & we know exactly what it is. A Big Loss. That is why I am writing this for you & you are reading it with this much interest.

After a lot of research, analysis & self-experience, I have concluded that trading is simple but not easy if you don't learn it in a proper module.

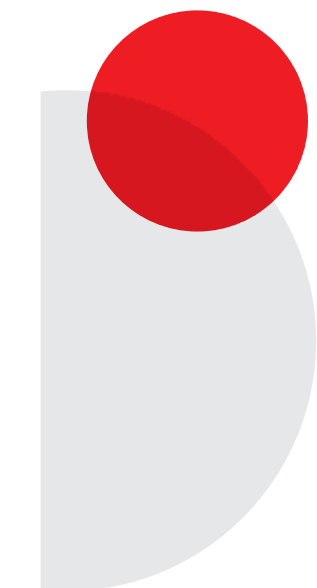

Also, it can be too lengthy & boring. So you have to cut out all the extra unnecessary stuff that is useless in practical trading. It may help you pass a monotonous exam but will not help you in the short term or midterm trading.

So where and what's the module?

I will tell you that, but that's not the holy grail.

Holy Grail of trading lies in learning the module & in “systemically” forming a system called "TRADING PLAN" & following it religiously with discipline.

So what you need is a Trading System, a Written Plan which you'll prepare and submit after the course to receive your certificate of completion.

TESTIMONIALS

My name is Vanssh Bhatia and I am a student at Booming Bulls Academy. I was mentored by Anish sir, who has a different, interactive and brilliant way of teaching. He gives personal attention to each student during webinars and waits until each doubt has been cleared. The content of the course was smart and logical and not moving around with numerous indicators. Just precise -ness and essential part and no crap. The strategy is super easy and highly accurate. I have done almost 10 courses wasted a lot of money on courses but came empty-handed. Now just sitting on the desk relaxed I can make sure of my entry and exit. I would recommend this course to everyone

-Vansh Bhatia

Hi, my name is Vansh seth, I'm 19 years old and a college dropout, was finding a way to create money not by cramming fat books but by real education, I can't explain in words how Anish sir changed my mind set by teaching me about how to trade. Most importantly Anish sir is a very positive person, the day I entered booming bulls office , i became a very positive person from a very depressed teenager. The way he teaches can make a person billionaire if he/she follows the rules. I can't describe in words more. All i can say that god bless booming bulls.

-Vansh Seth

Started with zero knowledge and yet able to earn 80% of my capital in less than two weeks and the credit goes to Booming Bulls, with the help of simplified trading strategies taught by Mr. Anish Singh Thakur I am able to create my secondary income source from Share Market Trading. In ELITE TRADING COURSE I learnt about Share Market, Price Action, simplified Trading Strategies and most importantly do's & don'ts.

Hi, I'm Garima, I created my secondary income source from stock market training. For a newcomer like me, the training proved to be a lifeguard. Anish Sir lifted us from basics and has covered every aspect of trading. His way of teaching is super friendly. Taught in simplest language possible, with interactive classes and on the spot doubt clearance, he has proved to be an amazing mentor. After completing the course, regularly practising and analysing stocks before investing, the little myth I had at the back of mind that trading is gambling completely got shattered. It is purely hardwork. With proper knowledge and right guidance, everyone can ace in share market. I highly recommend the course. With reasonable fee amount, trading couldn't have been more simpler than this. Thank you booming bulls academy for all the guidance and support.
